

Part of what makes this country great is the integrity and 1 diversity of our sources of information. We desperately need to 1 maintain that integrity and diversity. It is clear that media 1 consolidation only serves the financial interest of the small 1 number of people who actually own the major conglomerates.1

I want rules in place that serve the public, rather than private, 1 interest. I oppose taking a vote that leads to more media 1 consolidation. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current 1 ownership rules.
